

10.	LIBRARY FACILITIES
10.4.	Rules of Conduct
Effective	2006	Revised
Next Review	2011

- 10.4.1. The Library endeavours to provide a welcoming and safe environment for the enjoyment of the public and staff so that all persons may partake of the benefits of the Library.
- 10.4.2. Individuals using Library services and resources are expected to act with respect and consideration for others and for Library property in accordance with the BC Human Rights Code and Library policies.
- 10.4.3. Library staff is entrusted with the obligation to ensure that the Library's policies are followed and will apply these policies in a fair, dignified and positive manner.
- 10.4.4. Any person who violates Library policies risks suspension of Library privileges, exclusion from the Library, cost-recovery damages and prosecution.