6.6.	Reconsideration of Materials
Effective	1986	Revised
Next Review	2011

- 6.6.1. The Library believes that a vital society encourages members of its community to actively participate in an open exchange of ideas and opinions. Thus the Library strives to provide the widest possible range of resources within its collections.
- 6.6.2. Library users may, on occasion, consider the content or manner of expressing ideas in material that is purposely selected to fill the needs of some users offensive. The Library recognizes the right of any individual or group to reject library material for personal use, but does not accord to any individual or group the right to restrict the freedom of others to make use of that same material.
- 6.6.3. Library users who object to materials located in a Library collection are asked to complete a written request for the reconsideration of the materials. Request forms are available for this purpose at the Library.
- 6.6.4. The Chief Librarian will communicate decisions made about challenged materials to the originators of the requests upon the completion of a formal review.
- 6.6.5. If the individual or group disagrees, or is not satisfied with the decision of the Chief Librarian, they may make a further request for reconsideration to the Library Board. The Library Board's decision will be final.
