

9.	OTHER SERVICES
9.7.	Community Information
Effective	2006	Revised
Next Review	2011

- 9.7.1. The Board recognizes the Library's role as an institutional member of the community that can provide access to community information. Therefore, space is made available to display such material.
- 9.7.2. The Library will accept material that deals with cultural, recreational, informational and educational events or activities. The Library does not accept petitions for any purpose.
- 9.7.3. All material posted or displayed are subject to prior permission from the Library. The Library becomes the owner of these materials and reserves the right to remove them at any time.
- 9.7.4. The Library Board endorses the Canadian Library Association's Statement on Intellectual Freedom (see Appendix).
- 9.7.5. Materials may represent a range of viewpoints. The Library does not promote particular beliefs or views, nor is the acceptance of any item for this space equivalent to endorsement of the viewpoint expressed therein. The Library may refuse to accept any material submitted.
- 9.7.6. The Library does not participate in partisan politics nor take an advocacy role on issues outside the library world.
- 9.7.7. Material whose primary purpose is to promote products, items or services will generally not be accepted. At the discretion of Library staff, exceptions may be made for material from a registered charitable organization, or in connection with an art display (see section 9.8 for details).
- 9.7.8. The Library will respond to each request by a group or individual to provide space for informational, recreational, cultural or educational displays, on an individual basis, taking into consideration:
- Availability, location and set up of space required;
 - Relevancy of the issue to the Library;
 - Degree of library staff assistance required; and
 - Impact on normal library operations.